Palarunca Travel

Discover the Faroe Islands together

Travel is our passion, discovering our second nature.

Discover the Faroe Islands with Palarunca

Between Scotland and Iceland lie eighteen rugged islands where green mountainsides, sheer cliffs and picturesque villages alternate. On this group trip, we combine the most beautiful places with our shared passion: geocaching.

THE CONCEPT

Not a traditional tour, but a journey of discovery with like-minded geocachers. We combine a carefully planned itinerary with plenty of freedom for geocaching, photo stops, short walks and spontaneous discoveries. Together we explore the most beautiful places in the Faroe Islands, with room for personal interests and individual choices.

WHO ARE WE?

We are Carl and Patricia, two passionate travellers and geocachers with a great love of nature, adventure and discovering special places. Geocaching has taken us around the world, often to surprising locations we would otherwise never have discovered.

With Palarunca Travel, we want to share our passion and travel experience with fellow geocachers. We combine carefully planned routes with special caches, breathtaking scenery, local culture and authentic experiences. We will personally guide you on this trip. Not a conventional group tour, but a journey of discovery together.

WHO IS THIS TRIP FOR?

For geocachers who enjoy travelling in a small group and love nature, adventure and good company. Comfortable walking shoes and suitable clothing are recommended.
